

How to play ART BINGO

ART BINGO is based on common Bingo played in most european countries. So to understand ART BINGO you need the basic Bingo rules. How it goes:

1. Bring a pen or marker with you. Buy a bingo ticket. To improve your winning chance you can buy as much tickets per round as you can keep an eye on.
2. A Bingo ticket is made out of a square of 3 columns and 3 rows. Each row has 9 fields. In 5 of them is a different random number from 1-90. There are 15 numbers on each ticket.
3. A caller will call out the number on the bingo ball he got randomly selected by a bingo machine. The drawn numbers will be shown additionally on a display. If you get to have one of those numbers on your ticket, you can mark them.
4. 1st Round: As soon as you could mark all 5 numbers in one of the 3 rows you shout out loud „Bingo“. You got yourself a price. At ART BINGO it will be either a donated art work or some special gift given from an artist.
5. 2nd or 3th round: The caller will inform you as how the round will go on after somebody got himself a bingo. Either you go on to fill any 2 of the 3 rows or you will have to fill all 3 rows for another bingo. After that a new round starts where you are able to buy new tickets.

Enjoy the game and good luck!

Example of 5 marked bingo tickets on one strip.